AUDITION TEXT

BATMAN speech

I'M BATMAN. I chose a bat because it's a strong symbol that strikes fear into the hearts of Gotham City's worst criminals. Bats are creatures of the night that work in the shadows, like I do. I also adapted many of the natural abilities of the bat into my suit and incorporated them not only into its design but also in how I protect myself in combat.

Now, one of my vital tools in crime-fighting is my cape. I not only use this cape to intimidate the enemy, but also as both a shield and a weapon for self-defense. One way to defend myself when battling the Scarecrow and his fear toxin is to cover my face with my cape but when The Penguin is using one of his deadly umbrellas, I use this swiping motion with my cape to attack and disarm him. When getting the drop on an enemy, I take my cape and spread it as far as I can as I swoop down.

The Justice League are all working toward the same ends. We were attempting to solve problems on our own, until an overwhelming force of evil threatened Earth. That's when we realized we needed to come together. With a focus on teamwork, collective problem solving, and shared training, we've joined forces to form a powerful team.
